2002 FALL SEMINAR

Introduction

Welcome to the BCEA 2002 Fall Seminar. The Association continues in its yearly gathering to pursue the dual goals of professional development blended with entertaining and enlightening speakers. The seminar is an essential component of staying connected in this field both for up-to-date information and personal exchanges. Make your arrangements now in order to ensure your attendance.

Dates

Friday, October 25, 2002
Saturday, October 26, 2002

2:00 pm BC Community Charter

Donald Lidstone,
Lidstone Young Anderson

The BC Community Charter constitutes the most significant overhaul of municipal empowering legislation since the province joined Canada in 1871. The omnibus spheres of regulatory jurisdiction, unlimited servicing powers, and natural person powers will cause practitioners to look at relationships with municipalities in new ways. In particular, there are new provisions respecting land, agreements to incur liabilities, borrowing, highway title, park title, and reserves.

3:15 pm AFTERNOON BREAK

3:45 pm Annual Case Update & Review

Ted Hanman, Cox, Taylor

James Goulden, Bull Housser & Tupper
Messrs. Hanman and Goulden continue on with the "Point/Counterpoint" format to highlight the noteworthy decisions in the past year and will provide their views on what the impact may be for practitioners in the field.

5:30 pm COCKTAILS

Bar hosted by:

Larry Dybvig, AACI, P.App, MAI,
Grover Elliott & Co. Ltd.

Gary Letcher, Edwards, Kenny & Bray

An overview of issues, contemporary thinking and practical challenges for practitioners related to the valuation and legal issues of impaired property in general, and contamination specifically.

10:30 am MORNING BREAK

11:00 am New Directions for the ECB

Participants:

Bob Shorthouse, Chair, E.C.B.

(representative from the BCEA)

The Expropriation Compensation Board will be incorporating case management and alternative dispute resolution processes into its mandate in the near future. A committee consisting of members of the Board and of the BCEA have been working on the design of these processes. This panel discussion offers an opportunity to share with the membership the steps which are under consideration and their implications for practice before the Board. It is also an opportunity for the membership generally to voice concerns and have input into the processes.

12:15 pm TENTH ANNUAL
