2022 BC Expropriation Association Annual Fall Conference

The British Columbia Expropriation Association invites you to our 30th Annual Fall Conference. Enlightening presenters and panelists will offer practical guidance and continuing professional education on a variety of topics related to expropriation. You will also have opportunities to network with other professionals who are involved with the acquisition and expropriation of land for public purposes.

To commemorate the Association's 30th anniversary, we are pleased to present a number of special events. Among others, there will be an extraordinary discussion with founding member Carl Nilsen who will reflect on his experiences over the last 50 years of expropriation practice. Attendees are also invited to bring a guest to celebrate at an evening banquet that will feature a sumptuous feast and general merriment.

The Bright Line: When does government regulation become de facto expropriation?

Phong Phan, BC Ministry of Attorney General

Aurora L. Faulkner-Killam, Cox Taylor

Mr. Phan and Ms. Faulkner-Killam will present on the current landscape of "de facto expropriation" by discussing recent developments in the law – including a proposed change to the legal test at the Supreme Court of Canada – as well as emerging contexts which may give rise to de facto expropriation claims.

11:15 - 12:00 PM

Agreeing to Disagree

Sarah McCalla, Norton Rose Fulbright Canada LLP

Section 3 Agreements represent a relatively unusual opportunity to come to an agreement to transfer an interest in land without an agreement on price. Ms. McCalla's presentation will go beyond drafting tips (though there will be some of those) to consider how Section 3 Agreements can become as varied as the parties, projects, and lands to which they relate and when there may be opportunities to move from boilerplate to bespoke.
